All income from Court fees appears payable to the Jahgirdar and question of jurisdiction & delay in the disposal of cases does not seem to have any bearing on claims for refund of court fees payable to the Jahgirdar. question is one which is capable of easy Solution as there can be no doubt of the Jaglirdar's liability to pay the Commission to the Vendors through whose agency the Stamps are Sold, when he is given the value of the Stamps. There should ordinarily be no difficulty in fixing the amount, as the bulk of the Stamps are Sold through

As these latter questions were pending in Council this file was kept by under the orders of the Asst Secy.

Page 1 of 11 last note

(21) It will be seen from the note of Branch I that no final decision has been arrived at on the general questions referred to. In regard to the case vendor commission apair, the reply of the Jaghirdar to this office no 1121-7E 1020 of 23.6.1897 calling for his opinion in the matter has not been received, and this is the cause of the non-settlement of the question. From the Dewans order quoted in the last para of the note of Branch I of 23.11.10 it is clear that the question should further be dealt with in this branch and brought to head.

(36) The general question of the Jaghirdari powers having since been ordered to be dropped for the time being, the question of the deduction of commission was referred to this branch for disposal. So the Jaghirdar was pressed for a reply to this office communication of 23.6.1909 and he has in his letter no. 360 of 6.3.1911 stated that the commission may be deducted from the amounts payable to him, at the rate paid by Govt.

Sl no. 8 in this file

R (37) In the Council Resolution of 5.3.1909 on the file re the Jaghirdari powers, it was recorded that "the arrears of commission on the amounts already refunded may be recovered from the Jaghirdar from the next payment."

(38) Accordingly in the draft put up sanctioning the bills pending, the commission chargeable to the Jaghirdar is ordered to be deducted from the amounts of the bills, as also the arrears of commission on the amounts already refunded ie from the year 1870-71 to the end of 1905-06.

(39) In the office note of 24.3.11, a practical difficulty in giving effect to the proposed order was pointed out as probable viz as to whether accounts from 1870 are available for giving retrospective effect to the deduction commission. It is perhaps on this point that financial opinion is called for.

(40) With regard to the sufficiency of the certificate referred to in the second sentence of the Dewan's ~~order~~ note of 26. 6. 11, attention is respectfully invited to G.O. no. 1532S-6 / J.F 41-93 of 20. 3. 95 prescribing the certificate in question. As regards the title of the Jaghirdar to the refund, the authority upon which it has been recognised is the Chief Com^r's order quoted at the beginning of this note.

Submitted.

(41) Under whatever authority the right of refund was accorded, it has continued now for 40 years and the right may be considered as having accrued by usucapio longissimi possessionis and acquiesced in by the Authorities of the day and perhaps does not now admit of further question at this late hour. As to the recovery of the Commission paid if accounts are forthcoming the Comp^y may be asked to recover the actual amount but if this is not possible a Composition rate on ten years average may be deducted with the consent of the Jaghirdar. Mr. B. Gopalah's note about the pawn was considered by the then Chief Comm^r Sir Richard Meade and the pawn continued. The certificate is all right.

(42) In this connection it may be worth while to enter into an arrangement

× The main ground on which the Muthomma pawned this right was that the entire cost of the Court was defrayed by the Jaghir.

4/9/11

Dewan's order of 26.6.11 on page 17.

(43) (1.) The certificate is promptly supported by a sale list from the Treasury offices. For example the claims for stamps used from 1.10.08 to 30.6.10 now under enquiry aggregate Rs 730/4. The Treasury officer has certified that stamps sold during the same period aggregate Rs 788/14. The difference is small & is a reasonable margin for stamps in the hands of parties.

(44) Any further check is not practicable without much trouble. As the statements are signed by the Amildar (Jaghir Amildar) and countersigned by the Jaghirdar himself further check does not seem necessary.

(44) (2) I agree with the opinion expressed by Secy at A in his note above.

(45) I am also of opinion that the Commission should be claimed only from the year in which the point was raised by the Comptroller. The amount involved is very small and it is not worthwhile to go back for a period of 40 years — a course which may be regarded as not quite fair.

General and Revenue Department

Sir,

With reference to your letter No. H 3211 SR 1597 dated 13th December 1910, I have the honor to state that the commission paid by Government to the Vendors of Court Fee Stamps may be deducted from the amount refunded to the Jaghir in proportion to the amount at the rate paid by Government and sanction may be accorded to the refund of the remaining amount,

Perhaps the Government of the day did not consider it expedient to make the deduction evidently on account of the smallness of the amount involved. But if at present Government consider it otherwise and order deduction I can certainly offer no objection.

I request the Refund bills may be sanction-ed early subject to the deduction being made by the Audit Department when payments are made as much time has already elapsed.

I have the honor to be
Sir
Your Most obedient Servant
